

GREATEST LANDSLIDE IN HISTORY

ENTIRE MORGAN COUNTY TICKET ELECTED

GREATEST MAJORITY IN HISTORY GIVEN TO HARDING-COOLEDGE

Republican Candidates Sweep Country—
New York State Gives Million Plurality—
Illinois Will Give Ticket Over 500,000

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Retention of control of congress by the Republicans appeared assured as a result of yesterday's elections.

With returns in at 2:30 o'clock this morning for about half of the house membership, the Republicans had scored a net gain of sixteen members and incomplete senatorial returns indicated an increase in the upper house over the present majority of two.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—On the face of returns showing the growing landslide for Warren G. Harding, Governor Cox's own newspaper, the Dayton Daily News, and Chairman White of the Democratic national committee, soon after 11 o'clock tonight conceded the election of the Republican nominee.

Without waiting for returns from the west, which four years ago elected Wilson in the face of pluralities for Hughes thruout the east, the Democratic candidate and his chief manager conceded that in the "solemn referendum" which President Wilson declared would decide the league of nations question, American voters had preferred Harding who favored "staying out," to Cox, who favored "going in."

Governor Cox who was in his newspaper office when the concession of Senator Harding was published said he would issue no statement. Senator Harding at his home in Marion, said he was "more given to prayer to God to make more capable of playing my part," than he was to exultation.

When Governor Cox and Chairman White made their concession such returns as were coming in from the western states showed a strong drift to Harding and the Republican landslide which began to take on tremendous proportions throughout the east was continuing to roll on with seeming never ending momentum.

The hour the Democratic concession of Republican victory was made there were practically no returns in to show the trend of voting on congress. The few returns at hand showed few net changes and they were for the Republican side. The Democratic fight for control of the senate, particularly of its potential effect on consideration of the peace treaty issue showed no signs of waning. Penrose of Pennsylvania, Cummins of Iowa, Wadsworth of New York, Brandegee of Connecticut and Moses of New Hampshire, the latter two, "bit-ter-enders" in their opposition to the treaty of Versailles seemed safe in re-election by substantial majorities.

Taking the Republican landslide in the east as handwriting on the wall, metropolitan newspapers among them those which staunchly had supported Governor Cox and the league of nations issue, announced the election of Harding early in the evening. There were then no figures to assure it, or to give assurance that the sudden turning about of four years which changed apparent victory for Hughes into election for Wilson would not be repeated. Democratic managers early in the night professed confidence that the votes from the west would overcome the sentiment of the east.

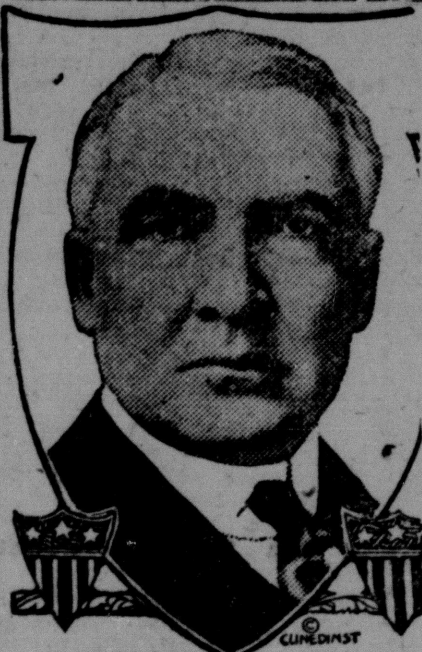

The fifth Bronx assembly district today elected the first woman Socialist to the New York state legislature. She is Marion H. Laing, who defeated William Lyman, the fusion candidate.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Returns from 714 precincts out of 2,473 in Cook county give Small 140,316; Lewis 94,583.
Incomplete but representative returns from Cook county congressional districts indicated the probable defeat of Representative Sabath and John Rainey, Democrats and the election of a solid Republican delegation to congress from the county.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Returns from 1,367 precincts out of 5,730 in Illinois including 625 in Chicago gave for governor:
Chicago:
Small 121,816

Lewis 68,885
Total:
Small 277,873
Lewis 151,182

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Republicans swept Illinois today from the Metropolitan contest in Chicago, where a clean victory was scored for all offices, to the rural regions, giving Senator Harding a lead so large that if the ratio kept up for unreported precincts his majority over Governor Cox would be more than 800,000.

Len Small was elected governor by a large margin also. Former Senator Lewis, Small's Democrat opponent was not able to overcome the Republican tendency, despite the fact that many tickets were split in his favor in Chicago.

William B. McKinley was elected United States senator to succeed Lawrence Y. Sherman, who retired and while returns were incomplete on congressmen, Republican candidates were either elected or had leads in nearly every district. Among the Republicans returned to congress was Joseph G. Cannon.

Election Bulletins

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 3.—While Harding apparently carried Minnesota by a decisive majority, as indicated in returns available today, the Republican state ticket, especially for governor and one or two other offices, were running a close race with candidates endorsed by the Non-Partisan League.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—Harding and Coolidge were leading by 39,120 votes in New Jersey when the poll for 387 districts out of the state's 2,046 had been counted at 2 o'clock this morning. The vote was:

Cox 34,497
Debs 831

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 3.—With 636 of the 1,868 precincts in West Virginia reported at 1 a. m., Governor Cox was credited with 68,610 votes and Senator Harding with 92,602. These returns came from 44 of the 55 counties in the state.

The fight for governor and other state offices very generally followed the presidential contest, Morgan (r), having 79,722; Koonitz (d), 57,054, and Montgomery (Non-Partisan), 25,130.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3.—Governor Cox increased his lead of over 25,000 votes in Kentucky to nearly 35,000 when returns from 2,588 precincts out of 3,226 in the state had been compiled. The vote stood:
Harding 363,122
Cox 397,939

Only meagre returns had been received up to midnight from the mountain districts in the eastern part of the state, but these, for the most part, gave Harding the advantage.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 3.—At 2 a. m. returns from 65 of the 201 districts in the state gave:
Harding 12,643
Cox 8,033

FOR GOVERNOR
Denny (r) 12,633
Lynch (d) 8,040

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—A noticeable drift toward the Republican ticket, both state and national, was indicated on the face of unofficial returns from 1,064 precincts of the 3,810 in Missouri. These precincts gave:
Harding 158,539
Cox 147,355

Spencer, Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate, who championed the fight in this state against the league of nations, overcame an early lead in favor of his Democratic opponent, Breckenridge Long, third assistant secretary of state under President Wilson. Spencer had polled 152,264 votes against 140,462 for Long on the 1,064 precincts reporting.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 3.—With the vote on president going overwhelmingly for Harding, interest turned at midnight to the race for United States senator and governor.

At a late hour, the Milwaukee Sentinel claimed the election of Blaine, Republican, as governor and the re-election of Senator Irvine L. Lenroot. Returns from 643 precincts gave for governor:
Blaine, Republican 12,827; for McCoy, Democrat 44,060; for senator: returns from 520 precincts gave Lenroot, Republican 52,860; and Thompson, Independent 37,983; Reichel, Democrat 10,443; Weber, Socialist 6,520.

For other state offices, Republican candidates were well in the lead, according to the meagre returns except for attorney general.

Fragmentary returns from 52 precincts gave Morgan, Republican, 3,597; Larson, Democrat, 5,668.

HARDING RECEIVES GOLD MAKE UP RULE
MARION, O., Nov. 2.—While the senator was at dinner late in the evening a committee of employees of the Marion Star, his newspaper, called to present him with a gold printer's make-up rule and he came out on the front porch and with his voice choking with emotion thanked them for their devotion.

"I don't know of any call," he said haltingly, as tears rolled down his cheeks, "that has aroused my emotions more than this," said with you and I have tried to be honest with you; and God knows if I am called to the responsibility I am going to be honest with everybody in the world. I don't know if I can meet these responsibilities fully but I know that I can meet them with the same honesty that I have treated you.

"I am just a plain, ordinary fellow, but I can be on the square, and that's all there is to it."

SOCIALIST PARTY NOT WEAKENED
CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The Socialist party has not been weakened by the American woman's vote, except in a few isolated instances," said Otto Branstetter, national secretary of the Socialist party, in a statement to The Associated Press tonight. "Early returns indicate a heavy increase in the Socialist vote."

Branstetter sent the following telegram to Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate for president at the federal penitentiary at Alcatraz tonight:
"Early returns indicate vote up to expectations. Debs ahead of Cox in many precincts. Early scattered returns indicate a vote of from 2,500,000 to 3,000,000."

APPOINTS DELEGATES TO LEAGUE ASSEMBLY
Paris, Nov. 2.—The cabinet today nominated Leon Bourgeois, president of the council of the league of nations former Premier Rene Viviani and former minister of foreign affairs Gabriel Hanotaux as France's delegates to the league of nations assembly in Geneva beginning November 15.

WOULD GIVE PRAYER TO GOD FOR HELP TO PLAY HIS PART

Harding Feels Deep Responsibility of Result

IS NOT EXULTANT OVER VICTORY

MARION, O., Nov. 2.—Convinced by early returns of his election to the presidency, Warren G. Harding, issued a statement tonight saying that instead of being exultant over the result he was "more given to prayer to God to make me capable of playing my part."

The senator's statement follows:
"Assuming that the early returns are wholly dependable, I do not hesitate to say that I am pleased, of course, I am happy to utter my gratitude. But I am not exultant. It is not a personal victory. It is a renewed expression of confident Americanism and a national call to the Republican party."

"It is all so serious, the obligations are so solemn, that instead of exulting I am more given to prayer to God to make me capable of playing my part, and that all these calls to responsibility may meet the aspirations and expectations of America and the world."

"I am sure the people who have voted the Republican ticket will understand my feeling that I should make no unstudied statement, Harry M. Baugherty, a member of the Republican campaign committee made this statement here:

"It is the greatest victory in American politics, clearly foreshadowed and predicted. It is more than a partisan victory as the result was contributed to by millions of Democrats. The women of the nation have quickly indicated the conferring of the suffrage privilege as they sensed correctly the issues and rallied to the cause of America and American institutions. The Republican party is fully conscious of the great responsibilities implied in this popular verdict and will faithfully keep its obligations."

Will Go to Panama.
The senator's trip to Texas will begin Friday night or Saturday morning and Mr. Harding will arrive at Point Isabel, Texas, near Brownsville next Monday.

He plans to spend about ten days there and then leave for Panama by the way of New Orleans.

His stay in the Canal Zone will last about a week during which he will make a first-hand study of local conditions and particularly of the tolls system for American ships. He has advocated throughout the campaign a repeal of the tolls and it is expected he will collect information on that policy.

Leaving Colon about Dec. 1, he will land at New Orleans and will travel by train to Bedford, Virginia, where he speaks Dec. 5 at an Elks celebration.

Afterward he is to return to Marion to remain under present plans, most of the time until March 4.

Years ago Morgan county used to be accounted as Democratic territory with an occasional office elected on the Republican ticket. Then came the change and the county was put in the doubtful column.

Yesterday it looked like Morgan belonged in the Republican column for all candidates went into office with very substantial majorities. There were really no contests except between Frank Wanamaker and C. W. Boston for the circuit clerkship. Mr. Boston has been in office for four years, made a good record and was expected to be a formidable adversary but was defeated by a heavy vote.

The strong sentiment for Harding and Coolidge and the desire on the part of the people for a complete change was without doubt a matter of great assistance to the Republican county candidates and swept them into office with larger majorities than would have been true in an off year election.

Totals from a considerable number of the precincts are given in the accompanying tables. However the heavy vote and the size of the ballot made slow work for the judges and in many precincts the counting work was not complete until three o'clock this morning.

LOWDEN SENDS HIS CONGRATULATIONS TO GOVERNOR ELECT

Will Render Any Assistance Possible to Small

LANDSLIDE EXCEEDED HIS EXPECTATIONS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 2.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois tonight sent congratulations to Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge and also to Len Small, candidate for governor.

To Small, whom he opposed in the primary, the governor wired: "My heartiest congratulations upon your victory. Any assistance I can give you here in anticipation of the time you shall take office, I will be very glad to render."

His statement on the general election result follows:
"I confidentially expected a landslide. The proportions of it however, are away beyond my highest expectations. The Republican party has received a vote of confidence such as has rarely, if ever been given to any party in the history of the republic."

"Its responsibility therefore, will be correspondingly greater and I have no doubt but that under the leadership of President-elect Harding it will fully measure up to its responsibility."

To Senator Harding, Governor Lowden wired:
"My heartiest congratulations upon your overwhelming victory. If so complete as to be almost incredible."

"It is the greatest victory in American politics, clearly fore-shadowed and predicted. It is more than a partisan victory as the result was contributed to by millions of Democrats. The women of the nation have quickly vindicated the conferring of the suffrage privilege as they sensed correctly the issues and rallied to the cause of America and American institutions. The Republican party is fully conscious of the great responsibilities implied in this popular verdict and will faithfully keep its obligations."

Will Go to Panama

The senator's trip to Texas will begin Friday night or Saturday morning and Mr. Harding will arrive at Point Isabel, Texas, near Brownsville next Monday.

He plans to spend about ten days there and then leave for Panama by the way of New Orleans.

His stay in the Canal Zone will last about a week during which he will make a first-hand study of local conditions and particularly of the tolls system for American ships. He has advocated thruout the campaign a repeal of the tolls and it is expected he will collect information on that policy.

Leaving Colon about Dec. 1, he will land at New Orleans and will travel by train to Bedford, Virginia, where he speaks Dec. 5 at an Elks celebration.

Afterward he is to return to Marion to remain under present plans, most of the time until March 4.

BERGDOLL IS NOT ARRESTED IN GERMANY

Coblenz, Nov. 2.—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, who escaped from his guards in Philadelphia last May, after having begun a five year sentence for desertion from the United States army, has not been arrested in Coblenz, or elsewhere, in Germany, as reported, the American military authorities here declared.

Bergdoll, it is known is in Germany but he has innumerable means of protecting himself against arrest and of thwarting the efforts of the military to take him into custody although his movements are being closely followed. He has never been in the occupied area.

Years ago Morgan county used to be accounted as Democratic territory with an occasional officer elected on the Republican ticket. Then came the change and the county was put in the doubtful column.

Yesterday it looked like Morgan belonged in the Republican column for all candidates went into office with very substantial majorities. There were really no contests except between Frank Wanamaker and C. W. Boston for the circuit clerkship. Mr. Boston has been in office for four years, made a good record and was expected to be a formidable adversary but was defeated by a heavy vote.

The strong sentiment for Harding and Coolidge and the desire on the part of the people for a complete change was without doubt a matter of great assistance to the Republican county candidates and swept them into office with larger majorities than would have been true in an off year election.

Totals from a considerable number of the precincts are given in the accompanying tables. However the heavy vote and the size of the ballot made slow work for the judges and in many precincts the counting work was not complete until three o'clock this morning.

LOWDEN SENDS HIS CONGRATULATIONS TO GOVERNOR ELECT

Will Render Any Assistance Possible to Small

LANDSLIDE EXCEEDED HIS EXPECTATIONS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 2.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois tonight sent congratulations to Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge and also to Len Small, candidate for governor.

To Small, whom he opposed in the primary, the governor wired: "My heartiest congratulations upon your victory. Any assistance I can give you here in anticipation of the time you shall take office, I will be very glad to render."

His statement on the general election result follows: "I confidentially expected a landslide. The proportions of it, however, are away beyond my highest expectations. The Republican party has received a vote of confidence such as has rarely, if ever been given to any party in the history of the republic."

"Its responsibility therefore, will be correspondingly greater and I have no doubt but that under the leadership of President-elect Harding it will fully measure up to its responsibility."

To Senator Harding, Governor Lowden wired: "My heartiest congratulations upon your overwhelming victory. It is so complete as to be almost incredible."

Arenz, resident of "the strip," and John W. Pratt, who, in two terms did much to give Cass this valuable tract. So close was the legislature, at this time, between Whigs and Democrats that it was used as an argument that this loss of territory to Morgan would change it from Whig to Democratic control, and that a change of one vote in the House would transfer the majority from one party to the other.

Sunday evening he especially described how great was the debt the nation owed these sterling people for establishing the prin-

vaded a large share of the great commonwealth. In Iowa the struggle against slavery was vigorously thrusted through by the efforts of Rev. Asa Turner, brother of Prof. J. L. Turner late of this city. The grand New England town meeting principle prevailed greatly throughout the land and our glorious free institutions are the result. One Yale bachelor (which was the name of the ship) was sent to the West Indies by Sturtevant, Rev. Grosvenor, Rev. Asa Turner, Rev. Theron Baldwin and others were members. They were grand men and did wonderful things for the welfare and advancement of the whole land. It was in New England that the anti-slavery sentiment found its seed and its strongest supporters and in many ways the warfare of the land was promoted by the Puritans and their posterity.

"In Baku the British and American prisoners were made clean the streets and they were compelled to live in filth," said Mr. Kuhn.

Some explanation for the lower wheat prices is found in the figures showing the imports from Canada. In fifteen days in October five times more wheat came in the U. S. from Canada than during a similar period in 1915, and since that time until recent months very little grain has come from across the border.

Judge Landis gave the Chicago man who has been selling liquor illicitly a jail sentence of two and a half years. It is said that bootlegging is not nearly such a popular pastime in Cook county today.

Earnest co-operation is expected in the Red Cross community study which is now in progress under the direction of trained workers. It is not too much to expect that thru this effort data very valuable in the philanthropic and civic work of all the county will be collected.

That Cincinnati ball player has reversed all the popular legends about mothers-in-law. The transference of blood was the only thing that could save the life of this man's mother-in-law and according to the story he gladly made the sacrifice.

The state may demand a new trial for Wanderer, the Chicago ex-servant man convicted of deliberately playing his wife because he was interested in another girl. There was only one possible defense and that insanity. The jury found the man sane and fixed his punishment at 25 years' imprisonment for one of the most atrocious murders ever committed in Cook county.

The weather yesterday was not the kind counted ideal for elections but the heavy vote cast goes to show that weather doesn't count as much as it used to. Neither is it possible any more to judge campaign interest by the outward signs. Never before in the history of the country was there a national campaign with so few public meetings or demonstrations of any kind. Yet there was a heavy vote and the people before election day, had their minds well made up how they would cast their ballots.

The Salvation Army drive in Morgan county begins to day in both Jacksonville and the county precincts. As already indicated, members of the Army are here to co-operate with local solicitors. One fact that should not be overlooked is that all of the $3,800 which is to be collected in this county will be used for local work.

As a rule the money collected in drives as a part of a state-wide movement is sent away for work in other localities.

It is not surprising that the packers are joining with others in protesting against any increase in demurrage rates, which really mean higher freight costs. As it is now, railroads are very extravagant in the length of time they take for the delivery of a car of coal between the point of origin and the place of delivery, but they are exceedingly zealous in demanding that the consignee unload a car within 24 hours. There are plenty of cases on record where a railroad has required ten days to move a car a distance of fifty miles into Jacksonville, and then the officials were very busy in requiring immediate release of the car.

THE ELECTION RESULT.

The tremendous vote cast for Harding and Coolidge thruout the country did not come as a great surprise, altho the size of the vote was larger even than some sanguine G. O. P. leaders prophesied. A glance at the vote in the precincts of Morgan county, together with a consideration of the vote as cast thruout the state and nation, indicates that the result is more than a Republican victory. There were undoubtedly thousands and hundreds of thousands of Democrats who voted the Republican ticket at this election, tho they may have no intention of permanently changing their party alignment.

For many months past there has been a sincere and deep-seated desire on the part of the American people for a change in governmental management. As the months of the campaign progressed, the evidences of this wish for a change were stronger. Because of the errors and the extravagances of the Wilson administration a change was demanded. There was a reaction too from the sentiment which prevailed four years ago, when Mr. Wilson went into power with the slogan: "He kept us out of war." Subsequent events gave proof of the insincerity, hypocrisy or error of that position.

The revulsion of feeling against the centralized government idea which Mr. Wilson developed so strongly also had its effect. These and other contributing causes have put the Republican party back into control of governmental machinery.

The country expects much in wise leadership during the next four years, and as the Republican officials are placed in control by far more than the normal party vote, even more than in the usual sense there will be the obligation to serve the best interests of all the people.

While the returns from Morgan county are incomplete, it is practically certain that all the Republican candidates have been elected by safe majorities.

LITTLE TO SHIP OUT OF RUSSIA AT PRESENT

Press Correspondent Says Much Material Has Been Ruined in Handling—But Little to be Exported at Present Time.

London—Business men outside Russia are prone to be optimistic regarding immediate trade prospects in that country, according to a statement made to The Associated Press correspondent who recently crossed Russia, by the only foreign business man who was then in Siberia for the purpose of developing trade relations with the bolsheviks.

This man, Henrik Tornblom, a Swede, who represented American and Swedish concerns in Omsk, Siberia, for eight years previous to the Russian revolution, returned to soviet Siberia during the past summer.

His plan was to arrange for the exchange of Swedish farm machinery for vast supplies of wool, flax and furs which the bolsheviks stated had been gathered for shipment at Omsk. Arriving in Omsk he found the amount of goods available for export far below what he had expected and that the goods available had been stored for years, many of the bales of hides having become worthless because of improper handling.

Ten thousand tons of raw material, mainly wool and hides, available for export from all Siberia, was Mr. Tornblom's estimate after his investigation at Omsk.

"Raw materials must be the basis of foreign trade in Russia and Siberia," said Mr. Tornblom to The Associated Press correspondent, "but the stories sent broadcast through Europe and America of the vast supplies of raw material stored along the Trans-Siberian railway all ready to be shipped to foreign countries in return for manufactured goods are myths."

"War, revolution and the resulting chaos of the last three years has resulted in nearly all the products of the country being put to use by the military leaders who have overrun the country from time to time."

But Little Export. Potentially, of course, Siberia remains one of the world's great sources for raw materials. For mineral wealth, for wool, flax,

OLD JACKSONVILLE

AN EARLY PART OF MORGAN

By Ansley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

Few of our citizens may realize that Cass county (as also Scott) was ever a part of Morgan County. But such is the fact.

Why Cass got away from us does not appear to the writer. It is likely that desire for more offices—to do one reason.

The Separation
Occurred in 1837, after the two counties had been living together since 1823. Beardstown was the first county seat, then Virginia. In 1843 Beardstown was again the capital, but Virginia got it in 1872, and has held on to it since.

Keeling Berry
Was one of the early settlers of Morgan from Old Virginia, in 1832, with his parents, two brothers and four sisters. One brother was already here. They traversed 400 miles to get here. The men and boys walked nearly the whole distance.

They settled one mile east of where Little Indian station is. Mr. Berry afterwards became a prominent citizen of Virginia. In one of the contests over the county seat, Virginia produced a poll book with 2,880 names in it, altho she had never before polled over 750 votes.

Heroic Women.
There was no Red Cross or hospital here in the earliest days of these two counties, but, as in most pioneer settlements, there were heroic, self-sacrificing Christian men who did all, and more than their share, in taking care of the sick or unfortunate of those times.

They had few "early advantages," but they had an unequalled spirit of helpfulness to humanity. "At all hours of the day or night they went at the call of philanthropy to care for the sick, to relieve the needy, to comfort the afflicted, and even to bury the dead." There were no professional nurses or physicians, homes were widely separated, and calls of distress would often cause the women to ride hides and valuable furs, the country to the east of there could be surpassed, but there is little to export at the present time.

"After normal conditions are restored in Russia and Siberia foreign experts will need to spend time and money reconstructing and developing commercial enterprises before Siberia's pre-war export figures again can be realized. Practically all of the great enterprises conducted by foreigners in Siberia before the revolution, mines, dairy exports and farm machinery concerns, practically have been destroyed. The work of rebuilding them will be a matter of years."

Because of the difficulties of railway transport in Russia, it was decided that the exchange of goods, principally wool, flax and furs, for Swedish farm machinery, is to be undertaken by the water route from central Siberia. Raw materials gathered at Omsk have been loaded on river barges and shipped down the Irish and the Obi to the Kara Sea where the goods will be transferred to ocean-going schooners and taken to Sweden by way of the Arctic Ocean.

WINCHESTER FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Many Present at Funeral Services for the Late Hardin McLaughlin Tuesday Afternoon—Other Winchester News.

Winchester, Nov. 2.—The funeral of the late Hardin McLaughlin was held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the M. E. church. The large auditorium filled with relatives and friends of the deceased. "The Odd Fellows" attended in a body, the organization being largely represented.

A quartet composed of Mrs. W. H. Kinison, Miss Martha Higgins, E. J. Markille and George Hieronymus, sang the service with a song, "Lead Kindly Light." Rev. Carl Corrie, pastor of the church then read the scripture lesson. An obituary sketch of the deceased was read by Rev. C. W. Caseley, former pastor of the church, and he then offered prayer. The quartet then sang "Jesus Savior Pilot Me." Mrs. J. W. Eckman was the accompanist.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Caseley and in the course of his remarks the minister paid tribute to the life of the deceased and drew therefrom many lessons for the living.

The beautiful floral tributes were in charge of Mrs. Roy Thompson and Miss Jeanette Taylor.

Interment was in Winchester cemetery, the bearers being William A. Peak, Abe McCullough, David Hainsmurther, David Hawk, Grant Coultas, A. J. Eard, Guy Paul and Arthur Bush.

Ell McLaughlin and Ornsby Dawson arrived from Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of the late Hardin McLaughlin.

Mrs. Nellie Bean and her sister, Miss Bertha Hart, arrived Tuesday from Jacksonville. They came at this time in order to cast their ballots in the election.

The C. A. Phillips Produce Co. of Bluffs, has leased the Guy Clark poultry house and will continue the business there. Mr. and Mrs. Clark expect to go to California for the winter.

many miles in the night, over lonely prairie roads or forest paths. The riding was done on horseback.

Many lives were doubtless saved by their prompt response and timely attention. "Mother," Redman, of Sugar Grove, Cass county, long since gone to her reward, is mentioned as living an especially useful life in this respect.

"The Three Mile Strip"
Contest was a means of adding that much territory from the north side of Morgan county to the south side of Cass.

From January, 1837 to 1843, there was growing a feeling of dissatisfaction between the people of Township XVII, and other parts of Morgan, with Jacksonville. By act of the legislature two votes were taken; one in August, 1843, on a proposition to divide Morgan into two counties—Morgan and Benton. This proposition failed of the required number of votes, and "Benton county" was not created.

In May, 1845, those living in the four precincts forming the "three mile strip"—our northern ten precincts—voted for and against being attached to Cass county, and thru the votes and influence of Arenzville, the majority in favor of taking the territory from Morgan was 168. There was considerable contest before the legislature in getting this vote ordered. Morgan then had four representatives in the legislature, all Whigs. Among them was Francis Arenz, a resident of "the strip," and John W. Pratt, who, in two terms did much to give Cass this valuable tract. So close was the legislature, at this time, between Whigs and Democrats that it was used as an argument that this loss of territory to Morgan would change it from Whig to Democratic control, and that a change of one vote in the House would transfer the majority from one party to the other.

PAID TRIBUTE TO THE PILGRIMS

Rev. W. E. Collins Gave Discourse as Part of Ter-Centenary Observance.

During the past few Sunday evenings Rev. W. E. Collins has been delivering sermons on the events of 300 years ago in keeping with the ter-centenary of the landing of the Pilgrim fathers and the work they accomplished.

Sunday evening he especially described how great was the debt the nation owed these sterling people for establishing the principles of free-government in the land. They began in New England and their wise counsels pervaded a large share of the great commonwealth. In Iowa the state voted against slavery largely thru the efforts of Rev. Asa Turner, brother of Prof. J. B. Turner late of this city. The grand New England town meeting principle prevailed greatly thruout the land and our glorious free institutions are the result. BIRTH RATE IS LOW IN RUSSIA

Has Divided to Practically Nothing—Death Rate Extremely High.

CONSTANTINOPLE. — (By The Associated Press.) — T. A. Kuhn, a Lucerne business man who has just arrived here after a five months' trip to Moscow told the correspondent of The Associated Press that the birthrate in the Russian cities had decreased almost to a point where no more children were born, while the death rate was constantly increasing. The metal industries are the only ones operating, he said. Speaking of the high prices for food and clothing, he added:

"Women in the cities are wearing nondescript dresses made of patched cloth and scraps lace, scarfs, etc. I cannot see how anyone can live thru another winter except the peasants."

"The fact that in Moscow there are many passports of all nations makes it possible to send bolshevist propagandists all over the world."

Mr. Kuhn returned to Constantinople via Turkestan and Baku. He said that it would be virtually impossible for bolsheviks to penetrate India thru Turkestan because of the trackless desert and unfriendly Mussulman tribesmen. He said there are 100,000 German prisoners along the railway from Orenburg to Aaskent, most of whom did not know who won the war.

"In Baku the British and American prisoners were made to clean the streets and they were compelled to live in filth," said Mr. Kuhn.

"I came thru Trifits and was able to observe that the Georgians are subjected to a tyrannous rule imposed by a delegation from Moscow, against which they dare not protest."

STOP SOUVENIR HUNTERS

Paris. — A lesson to tourists too anxious to take away with them souvenirs of the battlefront has just been given by the military authorities of Fort Vaux at Verdun which has hitherto been open to visitors to Verdun. The authorities have decided to close the fort indefinitely. A few days ago a tourist took possession, doubtless as a souvenir, of an electric lamp bulb. He was indiscreet enough to make a flourish of the bulb in a Verdun cafe. The military authorities confiscated the bulb and then came the order making the fort "out of bounds" to visitors.

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It.

In the Spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Subacute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bed-ridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from such forms of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send me the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

STOP SOUVENIR HUNTERS

Paris. — A lesson to tourists too anxious to take away with them souvenirs of the battlefront has just been given by the military authorities of Fort Vaux at Verdun which has hitherto been open to visitors to Verdun. The authorities have decided to close the fort indefinitely. A few days ago a tourist took possession, doubtless as a souvenir, of an electric lamp bulb. He was indiscreet enough to make a flourish of the bulb in a Verdun cafe. The military authorities confiscated the bulb and then came the order making the fort "out of bounds" to visitors.

RAIN BREAKS UP N. Y. CELEBRATION
Crowds Swept From New York Streets By Wind and Rain Storm—World Concedes Harding's Election Early in the Evening.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—With tooting horns and the cackle of rattlers, New York City poured out into the streets late today for its time honored election night celebration. But hardly had the streets been filled than they were emptied again. Crowds which had gathered in front of bulletin boards broke and ran, swept along by furious wind, that whipped the raindrops under umbrellas with merciless force. The few score, however, that stood their ground on Park row at 8:45 o'clock saw the tower of the New York World building suddenly illuminated with red lights, the signal that that newspaper, a staunch supporter of Governor Cox had conceded the election of his rival.

The New York Times, however which had supported the Democratic presidential nominee at 9:15 o'clock had not accepted early returns as indicating his defeat.

RAIN BREAKS UP N. Y. CELEBRATION
Crowds Swept From New York Streets By Wind and Rain Storm—World Concedes Harding's Election Early in the Evening.
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—With tooting horns and the cackle of rattlers, New York City poured out into the streets late today for its time honored election night celebration. But hardly had the streets been filled than they were emptied again. Crowds which had gathered in front of bulletin boards broke and ran, swept along by a furious wind, that whipped the raindrops under umbrellas with merciless force. The few score, however, that stood their ground on Park row at 8:45 o'clock saw the tower of the New York World building suddenly illuminated with red lights, the signal that that newspaper, a staunch supporter of Governor Cox had conceded the election of his rival.

WHITE CONCEDES THE ELECTION OF SENATOR HARDING

Congratulates Harding and Coolidge on Result

HOPES PARTY WILL MAKE GOOD PROMISES

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee conceded the election of Senator Harding at 11 o'clock tonight.

The following statement was issued by Mr. White:

"The abandonment by some of the most prominent Republican leaders of the very league of nations which they helped to construct has been successful. The people have succumbed to the confusion wrought by these distinguished men and to the misrepresentation of those who would not and did not understand the league of nations. I hope it may yet be rescued from the political morass and be saved to mankind."

"No one has any occasion for bitterness or recrimination. What the whole people decide, the whole people must accept. The Democratic national committee abides by the result cheerfully, if with foreboding. Senator Harding is the people's president."

ants of six European nations to vote as six European nations instead of as one American nation. They have inveigled these Americans to vote with their thoughts across the sea instead of on this country.

Must Unite Group.

"The common task must be to unite this group again. The fate of Irish freedom has been settled adversely. Men and women of Irish blood have voted for the candidate who has declared the Irish question to be a domestic problem of Great Britain in which we can have no official concern. With their support the American people have returned the Irish problem to Downing street. They have endorsed and I am sad to say, a separate peace with Germany."

"For the first time in eight years a Republican party is face to face with the task of constructive legislation and more than that the measures of reconstruction for which the country has been asking a Republican congress for two years in vain. They must change a negative record into a positive. And in this task they have the best wishes of all who love their country. As the national chairman of a party which is and has always been for America first, I have sent messages of congratulation to Senator Harding, Governor Coolidge and Mr. Hays. I wish them success."

Mr. White's telegrams of congratulation follow:

Senator Warren G. Harding,

Marion, Ohio.

The American people have overwhelmingly chosen you. Accept my congratulations and best wishes for a successful leadership of this great nation in its critical hour.

Governor Calvin Coolidge,

Northampton, Mass.

You are the overwhelming choice of the people for vice-president. Please accept my cordial congratulations and good wishes.

FIND WEAPON FOR FIGHTING STRIKES

Technische Nothilfe Known as the Red Cross of Industry Is Weapon—Union Labor Men Among Volunteer Workers In Essential Industries.

Stuttgart. — German industrial leaders believe they have found an effective weapon for fighting general strikes in the Technische Nothilfe, known in Germany and Denmark as the "Red Cross of industry." As evidence they point to the fact that the organization crushed a general strike in the state of Wuerttemberg in five days when that state was menaced with a complete paralysis of all industrial activity.

The Technische Nothilfe was organized at Stuttgart about a year ago and is operating under the direction of the Minister of the Interior. In normal times only a skeleton office is maintained which occupies itself with preparations for an emergency. Wuerttemberg is divided into 100 sub-districts, each of which has a leader whose duty is to prepare a list of volunteers able in emergency to operate all the essential industries of the community. The head offices in the city are furnished with a complete list of such volunteers. The active technical emergency managers of essential industries usually are named as chiefs for those industries and they presumably are non-union men. Among the volunteers listed are university students, engineers, professors in polytechnic institute and unskilled workmen from every class of society.

The central organization makes provision for bedding, foodstuffs and army kitchens for the volunteers who camp by their jobs.

Each volunteer is informed in advance where to report and upon the notification of a strike proceeds to that post where the Technische Nothilfe has developed supplies considered sufficient for the duration of the strike. It is claimed that in a very short time the central office thus can furnish an operating force for each industry.

The general strike here was called as a protest against the ten per cent tax on workmen's wages. It was arranged by the communists but adhered to by the Majority Socialists, the more conservative labor elements and trade unions. Distribution of food ceased and gas, electric and water service was abandoned. The community was confronted with possible chaos when the Technische Nothilfe stepped in, assumed control and manned every essential post, vacated by the strikers, including the highly technical positions.

There was some difficulty in finding men fitted to aid in the heavy work such as firing furnaces, for few of the volunteers had been accustomed to such labor, but this was solved by working very short shifts. The majority of the 265 men working and living in gas works were Polytechnic students.

There were even union labor men among the volunteers, for some of the labor leaders believe that certain industries must be kept going to prevent collapse or a community and only Nothilfe can do this. Some of the conservative labor leaders felt that the control of their organizations might slip out of their hands into those of the extreme radical elements who would tie up all industries if it were not for the Technische Nothilfe. For these reasons they have made no opposition to union men volunteering for service with that organization.

The strike began at midnight Saturday, the volunteers were ordered on duty Sunday morning and by Monday morning the industries were functioning on the reduced capacities but by Wednesday morning normal production had been attained.

Motor trucks were requisitioned for the distribution of food to the volunteer workers and an appeal was issued to labor, philanthropic and social organizations to aid in protecting the workers and strikers. The members of the Technische Nothilfe are under obligation to carry no arms.

In less than five days the strikers began to return to work and as each one took his place, a member of the Technische Nothilfe quit unostentatiously and in less than a week the strikers were again at their posts.

Chiefs of the Technische Nothilfe in charge of industrial plants at Stuttgart were carefully instructed to obtain written statements as to the condition of the plants when the strikers returned, so that the radicals could not subsequently practice sabotage and charge that it was the work of the Technische Nothilfe.

Fair, Isn't It?

WHY MAJESTIC RANGE PRICES CANNOT BE LOWERED

There are two kinds of prices—honest prices and inflated prices.

Sound reasoning will convince anyone that honest prices on ranges cannot be lowered until material and labor is lowered.

Only prices that are inflated (too high) can be lowered today, and leave an honest profit for the manufacturer.

Majestic Range prices are honest prices, they have always been based on actual costs of material and labor, plus an honest living profit.

To lower the price of Majestic Ranges today, would be the same as saying that our prices WERE inflated, because, material that goes into our range, and labor, is not one cent less than it was when we made our last price—in fact, material is higher right now.

Iron, Steel and Copper, of world-wide demand now, show no indications of a decline.

Skilled workmen who make Majestic Ranges, have never been paid inflated wages, but have always been given honest wages based on costs of honest living. Remember this—the lowering of inflated prices and inflated wages should never be confused with honest prices and honest wages.

Majestic Ranges may seem high—and on the surface they are higher than many other ranges, but, in the long, economical service they give, THEY ARE THE LOWEST PRICED RANGE ON THE MARKET TODAY.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Audience Tuesday Night Was Largest at Week Night Services—"Old Time Religion" is the Theme Tonight.

The largest audience of the week nights greeted Dr. Violette in the revival at Central Christian church last night. The auditorium and balcony were crowded and chairs were brought in to accommodate the late comers. Delegations were present from Lynnville and Winchester, and intense interest prevailed throughout the evening.

A pleasing feature of the meeting was a solo by Mrs. Demereth, formerly Miss Gertrude Doyle of Winchester. The congregational singing under the leadership of Prof. Pollock, was particularly inspiring and enthusiastic.

Dr. Violette read from memory, the seventh chapter of Revelations and then delivered a thought-provoking sermon on "The First Five Minutes After Death." It was an eloquent excursion into the realm of immortality, based upon scientific data and the invincible logic of the teaching of Christ. He showed that life and not death, is the real mystery, and that whoever learns to live will look upon the thing called death as merely an incident that makes no greater change in man than many other incidents in his career.

Tonight Dr. Violette will preach on "The Old Time Religion" and he announces Acts second chapter for his scripture lesson.

Don't forget the box social at Liberty church this evening, Nov. 3.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE TO BEGIN

Campaign to Raise $3,800 in County Will Open Today.

The active campaign for funds for the Home Service work of the Salvation Army will commence today. This work is worthy of works in a field not covered by any other welfare organization. Everybody can speak a good word for the army. Overseas men are proud in their words of appreciation of their services.

The advisory board appeal to local citizens to subscribe liberally, receive the uniformed soldiers kindly, giving them every assistance possible, as the days of the campaign are few.

Bear in mind that every dollar of the quota $3,800 will be spent in our own country in welfare work. It is your opportunity to help the Salvation Army serve this community more effectively. The members of the local corps have already sent in pledges to the amount of one hundred and five dollars showing their loyal support in the effort. This should be an incentive for people of means to subscribe liberally.

Deaths

Keekner.

Mrs. Johannah Keekner passed away at 9:40 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Charles Keekner, 635 North Main street. She had been in failing health for several months but her last illness had been of only two weeks duration.

Deceased was a native of Germany and would have been 84 years and 8 months of age today. She came to this country when quite young and had been a resident in this state for many years. Her husband died 11 years ago. Since that time she has made her home in this city.

She was a member of the German Lutheran church and always lived a devout christian life. Mrs. Keekner is survived by four sons, George and John Keekner of Jerseyville, Gottlieb of Hardin, Calhoun county and Charles of this city. She also leaves one daughter, Mrs. Carrie Pinkerton of Clayton, New Mexico.

The remains will be taken to Jerseyville to the home of her son where funeral services will be held Thursday.

WOOLFOLK'S VANITY FAIR

Ho! All ye that are weary and heavy laden, here are glad tidings of a port of release, an open door of escape to a gladder world. Wherever you see announced the coming of Woolfolk's Vanity Fair of 1920 with Elmer Coudy and a large company of musical comedy favorites, enter ye in and be saved from your sorrow and spiritual ennui. This musical revue, "Vanity Fair," served to break the record at many of our largest theaters this season. It will be seen at the Grand Theatre tonight, Nov. 3, which we mention merely as a matter of record. Unlike other so-called revues, "Vanity Fair" does not attempt to satirize current or recent dramatic successes, but instead has a story of interest intermingled with high class specialties. The book of "Vanity Fair" is by John P. Mulgrew, with lyrics and music by Felix Rice. The twenty odd musical numbers which illuminate the score thru the two acts and twelve scenes have already found their way to the victrolas, a sure sign of popular appeal. Most prominent among them may be mentioned "Fiddling Around," "Art's A Wonderful Thing," and others, both charming and melodious. In the cast are a host of girls, which are advertised as "Vanities Fairest."

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE TO BEGIN

Campaign to Raise $3,800 in County Will Open Today.

The active campaign for funds for the Home Service work of the Salvation Army will commence today. This work is worthy of works in a field not covered by any other welfare organization. Everybody can speak a good word for the army. Overseas men are proud in their words of appreciation of their services.

The advisory board appeal to local citizens to subscribe liberally, receive the uniformed solicitors kindly, giving them every assistance possible, as the days of the campaign are few.

Bear in mind that every dollar of the quota $3,800 will be spent in our own country in welfare work. It is your opportunity to help the Salvation Army serve this community more effectively. The members of the local corps have already sent in pledges to the amount of one hundred and five dollars showing their loyal support in the effort. This should be an incentive for people of means to subscribe liberally.

Deaths

Keenher.
Mrs. Johannah Keenher passed away at 9:40 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of her son, Charles Keenher, 635 North Main street. She had been in failing health for several months but her last illness had been of only two weeks duration.

Deceased was a native of Germany and would have been 84 years and 8 months of age today. She came to this country when quite young and had been a resident in this state for many years. She husband died 11 years ago. Since that time she has made her home in this city.

She was a member of the German Lutheran church and always lived a devout christian life. Mrs. Keenher is survived by four sons, George and John Keenher of Jerseyville, Gottlieb of Hardin, Calhoun county and Charles of this city. She also leaves one daughter, Mrs. Carrie Pinkerton of Clayton, New Mexico.

The remains will be taken to Jerseyville to the home of her son where funeral services will be held Thursday.

WOOLFOLK'S VANITY FAIR
Ho! All ye that are weary and heavy laden, here are glad tidings of a port of release, an open door of escape to a gladder world. Whenever you see announced the coming of Boy's Woolfolk's Vanity Fair of 1920" with Elmer Condy and a large company of musical comedy favorites, enter it in and be saved from your sorrow and spiritual ennui. This musical revue, "Vanity Fair," served to break the record at many of our largest theaters this season. It will be seen at the Grand Theatre tonight, Nov. 3, which we mention merely as a matter of record. Unlike other so-called revues, "Vanity Fair" does not attempt to satirize current or recent dramatic successes, but instead has a story of interest intermingled with high class specialties. The book of "Vanity Fair" is by John P. Mulgrew, with lyrics and music by Felix Rice. The twenty odd musical numbers which illuminate the score thru the two acts and twelve scenes have already found their way to the victrolas, a sure sign of popular appeal. Most prominent among them may be mentioned "Fiddling Around," "Art's A Wonderful Thing," and others, both charming and melodious. In the cast are a host of girls, which are advertised as "Vanities Fairest."

AMERICAN LEGION TO STAGE CORN CARNIVAL

Make Preparations for Big Indoor Event—Will Be Held in White Hall Nov. 11, 12 and 13.

White Hall, Nov. 2.—Plans for the greatest event yet undertaken by an American Legion post in Greene county are now under way at White Hall in the preparations for an indoor corn carnival that is to be held in the Spangenberg building on Main street, Nov. 11, 12 and 13. It promises to be the greatest local event in years, and is under the direction of White Hall post No. 70, through an executive committee composed of C. A. Whiteside, R. F. Barnett and J. W. Lyman. Barnett has been designated to look after the advertising, and as plans mature he is going "hog wild" over the bigness of the affair that enables him to talk in big language. In addition to the corn carnival there is to be a public auction of live stock, grain, vegetables, etc., which may be donated to the post for the purpose of swelling its exchequer, and there will be in constant operation a 10c country store, where goods will be sold at a price not to exceed ten cents. Various other enterprises will be operated for entertainment and to get the money that is to be devoted to the post's building fund, and this building enterprise interests all the people because the altitude of the post is most favorable to joining forces with the other interests in bringing to a reality the proposed community building on Whiteside Park for soldier, library and general public purposes.

The climax to the events will be the giving away of a Ford automobile with electric starter and all the best appliances, numbers for which will be given out with purchases during the week. The solicitors for the country store are Calvin Vandreyden, Homer Marshall and George Russell Gilmore. Their work has been supplemented by Mr. Barnett, who has addressed a letter to all wholesale houses doing business with White Hall merchants, as follows:

"The second week in November the American Legion Post No. 70, White Hall, Ill., will hold a big indoor corn carnival for the purpose of creating a building fund. There will be amusements of all kinds, but the biggest feature of all will be a country store, in which there will be on sale articles from a stick of chewing gum to a ton of coal and everything drawn for a dime. If your company will send us some products along with some advertising material, we will endeavor to give you plenty of advertising in return for the favor. Thanking you in advance, we are respectfully yours,

Another attraction is the possible completion of the new Hudson garage to a point where a great public dance will take place under the auspices of the legion. The post has been accorded this privilege, and yet it may be that the garage will be ready for the event during the corn carnival.

Old Time Resident Dead.

The death of James B. Nell, an old-time resident of this locality, occurred at his home on West Lincoln street at 2:10 o'clock p. m., Saturday, aged 72 years. He had been in failing health for about a year, complications developing, and for the past few weeks his condition has been critical. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock Monday, the discourse being delivered by Rev. Arthur P. Ewert, and the interment was in the White Hall cemetery.

Mr. Nell was a native of Adair county, Ky., coming to Illinois when a boy, and for forty years he has resided in this part of Greene county, nearly all the time in the vicinity of Hillview, and has witnessed and participated in the reclamation of the large areas of waste land along the Illinois river in western Greene county. He purchased property and located in White Hall about five years ago. He is survived by the wife and five children, the latter being as follows: Elmer Nell, White Hall; Mrs. William Little, Hillview; Mrs. Pearl Johnson, Canada; Mrs. Elsie Johnson, San Francisco; Ernest Nell, Dallas, Texas.

The results of Saturday's football games in Greene county are as follows:

At White Hall—White Hall 21, Winchester 3.
At Greenfield—Greenfield 7, Belleville 6.

At Roodhouse—Roodhouse 7, Carrollton 27.

This is the second victory of the season for White Hall out of six games, although White Hall has scored in every game. Robley, playing quarterback for White Hall, scored one of the touchdowns, and Boyd, playing end, scored the other two touchdowns on beautiful forward passes. The game was evenly matched, yet the team of Carrollton was referee. White Hall will play at Carrollton next Saturday.

Basket Ball Schedule

White Hall has secured the McLaren garage for basket ball this winter, and a long schedule of games is being made up, including several strong teams, such as Jacksonville, East St. Louis, Kansas City, Alton, Jacksonville, Pittsfield, Bluffs, Virginia, Waverly, Pearl, Girard, Griggsville and Barry. The schedule will be announced in a few days. Practice will start as soon as the hall can be made ready.

Prospects were never better for a winning basket ball team at White Hall, as eight of the ten players were sent to the district tournament as Jacksonville last year, together with some splendid freshman material that includes four members of the strong junior high team of last year.

STATE SPENDS LARGE SUM

FOR CARE OF BLIND
Springfield, Ill.—Illinois annually expends approximately $175,000 for the care of 3,700 blind people, who according to the state department of public welfare are for the most part capable and anxious to become self supporting.

The money expended by the state includes appropriations for the maintenance of the School for the Blind at Jacksonville, the Industrial Home for the Blind at Chicago and the division for teaching adult blind in their homes.

Soldiers who were blinded during the war, and who for the most part have desired to remain at home, each receive a compensation of $100 per month for life, in addition to the $57.50 monthly payment of insurance for 20 years, however, although these men are fully provided for, so insistent has been the demand by them that they be taught trades, and professions that this work of rehabilitation has been turned over to a staff of instructors. Remarkable proficiency is reported from the former fighters.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned are asked to call at the old stand, 301 South Main street, and settle.

Their work has been supplemented by Mr. Barnett, who has addressed a letter to all wholesale houses doing business with White Hall merchants, as follows:

"The second week in November the American Legion Post No. 70, White Hall, Ill., will hold a big indoor corn carnival for the purpose of creating a building fund. There will be amusements of all kinds, but the biggest feature of all will be a country store, in which there will be on sale articles from a stick of chewing gum to a ton of coal and everything drawn for a dime. If your company will send us some products along with some advertising material, we will endeavor to give you plenty of advertising in return for the favor. Thanking you in advance, we are respectfully yours, White Hall Post, American Legion."

Another attraction is the possible completion of the new Hudson garage to a point where a great public dance will take place under the auspices of the legion. The post has been accorded this privilege, and yet it may be that the garage will be ready for the event during the corn carnival.

Old Time Resident Dead.

The death of James B. Nell, an old-time resident of this locality, occurred at his home on West Lincoln street at 2:10 o'clock p. m. Saturday, aged 72 years. He had been in failing health for about a year, complications developing, and for the past few weeks his condition has been critical. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock Monday, the discourse being delivered by Rev. Arthur F. Ewert, and the interment was in the White Hall cemetery.

Mr. Nell was a native of Adair county, Ky., coming to Illinois when a boy, and for forty years he has resided in this part of Greene county, nearly all the time in the vicinity of Hillview, and has witnessed and participated in the reclamation of the large areas of waste land along the Illinois river in western Greene county. He purchased property and located in White Hall about five years ago. He is survived by the wife and five children, the latter being as follows: Elmer Nell, White Hall; Mrs. William Little, Hillview; Mr. Pearl Johnson, Canaan; Mrs. Elsie Johnson, San Francisco; Ernest Nell, Dallas, Texas.

The results of Saturday's football games in Greene county are as follows:

- At White Hall—White Hall 21, Winchester 3.
- At Greenfield—Greenfield 7, Belleville 6.
- At Roodhouse—Roodhouse 7, Carrollton 27.

This is the second victory of the season for White Hall out of six games, although White Hall has scored in every game. Robley, playing quarterback for White Hall, scored one of the touchdowns, and Boyd, playing end, scored the other two touchdowns on beautiful forward passes. The game was loosely played, yet the teams were evenly matched. Fuller, of Carrollton, was referee. White Hall will play at Carrollton next Saturday.

Roodhouse played at Beardstown Sunday and was defeated 11 to 6.

Basket Ball Schedule
White Hall has secured the McLaren garage for basketball this winter and a long schedule of games is being made up, including several strong teams, such as Jerseyville, East St. Louis, Kansas City, Alton, Jacksonville, Pittsfield, Bluffs, Virginia, Waverly, Pearl, Girard, Griggsville and Barry. The schedule will be announced in a few days. Practice will start as soon as the hall can be made ready.

Prospects were never better for a winning basketball team at White Hall, as eight of the ten players were sent to the district tournament as Jacksonville last year, together with some splendid freshman material that includes four members of the strong junior high team of last year.

STATE SPENDS LARGE SUM FOR CARE OF BLIND

Springfield, Ill.—Illinois annually expends approximately $175,000 for the care of 3,700 blind people, which according to the state department of public welfare are for the most part capable and anxious to become self supporting.

The money expended by the state includes appropriations for the maintenance of the School for the Blind at Jacksonville, the Industrial Home for the Blind at Chicago and the division for teaching adult blind in their homes.

Soldiers who were blinded during the war, and who for the most part have desired to remain at home, each receive a compensation of $100 per month for life, in addition to the $57.50 monthly payment of insurance for 20 years however, although these men are fully provided for, so insistent has been the demand by them that they be taught trades, and professions that this work of rehabilitation has been turned over to a staff of instructors. Remarkable proficiency is reported from the former fighters.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned are asked to call at the old stand, 301 South Main street, and settle.

Dr. T. J. Whitten, for forty-five years a prominent physician and surgeon of Central Illinois and a former owner of the old Prince Sanatorium here, died Monday at the home of his son, Dr. Harry Whitten, in Peoria. Many older residents of Jacksonville will remember the deceased.

Dr. Whitten, who was 80 years of age, served as a hospital steward during the Civil war. On his discharge from service he took up the practice of medicine and built successful practices in every community in which he lived.

He had been a resident of Nokomis, Montgomery county, for a number of years. He leaves three sons and one daughter.

The deceased was connected with Dr. David Prince in operation of a sanatorium on South Sandy street, a short distance south of the square.

men for the first time in history to have equal suffrage along with the men.

Music—Duet — Zela Mueller
and Vera McCaleb.

Will They Pass Laws Compelling People to Use

Pure Toilet Soap?

—or laws enforcing the manufacture of strictly pure Toilet Soap?
There are laws prohibiting use of public drinking cups, and of public towels. Because they have been found to be unsanitary.

Can dirty towels be any more dangerous than impure soap? Not a bit. Not as much. Impure soap does not stop on the surface of the skin. It goes right down into and clogs up the pores of the skin.

If it isn't washed out it either
hampers the action of the pores
or is finally absorbed by the skin.
Either way is bad enough.

Everyone should be extremely careful in selection of a Toilet Soap. Can't be too discriminating.

Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap is a safe choice, always. This soap is absolutely pure.

It is made only of select materials of the highest quality. Then the combined ingredients are sterilized at 193° Fahrenheit—just as a surgeon's instruments are sterilized to purify them.

There is a world of enjoyment
in the use of Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap—and there is the solid satisfaction in knowing that the soft rich lather that feels so good is not only cleansing the skin but actually benefiting it—removing dust, grime and dirt—
leaving no impurities of any kind imbedded in the tiny pores.

If you prize cleanliness and appreciate its value to health and complexion beauty you certainly will use Remmo

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL AT MANCHESTER SCHOOL

Manchester, Oct. 31.—The Halloween social given at the school house by the graded under the direction of the teachers proved a very interesting event. The guests met at the door by ghosts, who led them into the primary room. A grand march was the opening event and prizes were awarded for the best costume to Miss Susie Windsor and the most comical to Jack Robinson.

Later all unmasked and a brief
program was given.

Miss Lora Petefish of Litererry of Literberry gave some readings
which proved most entertaining.
The ghosts' den, which was the intermediate room, was then opened and the guests found it decorated with witches, bats and skeletons.

There were various side shows and a fortune tellers' booth, all adding much to the merriment of the evening. The prize is the

This new way to beautiful teeth

Your druggist today has a new way of teeth cleaning. And a ten-day tube is free.

Millions of people now employ it.
Leading dentists everywhere advise it.
You would never go without it if you new.

Go ask for that free tube. There are few things more important than well-protected teeth.

Remove the film-coat

You brush teeth now, but you leave much of the film. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays.
The ordinary tooth paste does not end
it. So teeth too often discolor and decay.

Dentists now know that the reason lies in film. That causes most tooth troubles. And, until one ends it, brush-ing fails to save the teeth.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar.
It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They,
with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And pyorrhea wrecks countless lives today.

An alarming situation

Tooth troubles have been constantly increasing. Very few people escape them. So dental science has in late years studied to combat that film.

Now we know how. The methods have been proved by careful clinical tests, made under able authorities.
Now millions of people employ them, largely by dental advice. A new era in teeth cleaning is fast spreading the world over.

These new methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. A 10-Day Tube is given to everyone who asks. Now all who will may quickly know that film can be combated.

What you will see

A test of Pepsodent brings quick and unique effects. One sees and feels them clearly. And a book which comes what they mean to you.

with the 10-Day Tube tells the reasons
for them.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Each application also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film.
One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Day by day we fight the film and all its ill effects. You see the results in whiter teeth. You feel them in cleaner teeth. But the great results are such protection as teeth never had before.

You owe yourself a knowledge of these facts. Old ways of brushing have proved sadly inadequate. Nearly everybody at some time suffers troubles caused by film.

Now science knows how to combat film, and in ten days you can know.
Never again will you trust the old ways when you know the new.

FARMERS INSTITUTE IS HELD AT BLUFFS

Unusual Interest Shown in Institute Sessions Held Last Week
—Other Items of Interest From Bluffs Neighborhood.

Bluffs, Nov. 2.—The Farmers' Institute held in town Thursday and Friday was of unusual interest throughout the entire sessions. The following program was rendered: Thursday, Oct. 28, 1 p. m.

Music—Helen Rockwood.
Invocation—Rev. E. J. Rees.
Address—"The Business of the House." — Mrs. Frederick A. Dow. She handled her subject in an able manner and gave many valuable hints to the household.

Visit—Solo—Zela Mueller.
Address—Make More From Your Farm Poultry.—C. W. Farr. In his address he urged the farmer to breed only pure bred fowls to call closely and pay more attention to that particular branch of the farm business and splendid results would follow.

Address—The Civil Call of Women.—Farmers.—Walter H. Rowe.
Thursday evening 7:30.
Music—Vocal Solo—Vera McCaleb.

Invocation—Rev. Palmer.
Address—The Civil Call of Women.—Mrs. Frederick A. Dow. A large audience greeted the speaker and her remarks were full of material for future thought, especially at this time with women for the first time in history to have equal suffrage along with the men.

Music—Duet — Zela Mueller and Vera McCaleb.
Address—The Economy of the Household.—C. W. Farr as in the afternoon address his remarks were full of the city.

Friday, Oct. 29, 1 p. m.
Music—Helen Rockwood.
Invocation—Rev. Palmer.

Address—The Signs of the Times.—Mrs. Grace Viall Gray. Her remarks were of unusual interest, especially to the women. Her charming manner, her strong personality along with the able manner in which she handled her subject has endeared her to the people of Bluffs and vicinity.

Music.
Address—"The Care of Fruit Trees." A. W. Bravton, fruit grower of northern Illinois. He gave explicit directions for setting out a small garden of the smaller fruits, and also an orchard of the tree variety. His address was one of interest and contained many practical suggestions for the farmer and small gardener.

Address—Care and Feeding of Swine by Frank Drury was very instructive.
Music—Zela Mueller.

Friday Evening.
Invocation—Rev. Palmer.
Address—The Duties and Responsibilities of the Women of Today.—Mrs. Grace Viall Gray.

Music—Mrs. H. Corbridge.
Address—"What Our Farm Bureaus Are Doing." Mr. Kendall, advisor of Morgan county. This last and closing numbers on the program was full of interest inasmuch as he gave in detail the line of work which was being carried on in Morgan county.

Surely the citizens of a county having a county advisor derive much benefit from that source. Many premiums were awarded and never before in the history of the institute has the exhibits been more carefully selected or arranged in a more pleasing manner. The farmers won a goodly number of the prizes.

The fancy work department compared favorably to exhibits entered at a state fair. Many delicious cakes were on display and also canned fruits and vegetables. The largest pumpkin exhibited weighed 94 lbs and was raised by George Herman.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned are asked to call at the old stand, 301 South Main street, and settle.

FRANKLIN HOMEMAKERS IN SESSION TUESDAY

The Home Makers' Circle of Franklin met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Whitlock. About thirty-five ladies attended the meeting, and a very interesting and helpful program was enjoyed.

Following is the program:
The roll call was responded to by each member paying her dues.
Paper, "The Family Budget"—Mrs. George Brown.

Instrumental duet—Mrs. Dr. Henderson and Mrs. Rev. Kuntz.
Paper, "Autumn Duties"—By Miss Alice Christwell.

Current events round table, led by the president, Mrs. James Sinclair. During this latter feature, each member contributed a current event, which was discussed by those present. Much instructive information was gathered by the members in this discussion.

Following the regular program came a social hour, during which light refreshments were served. All departed for their homes, expressing themselves as having had a most enjoyable meeting.

Fine Point club meets Friday afternoon with Mrs. Alcott.

Will They Pass Laws Compelling People to Use Pure Toilet Soap?

—or laws enforcing the manufacture of strictly pure Toilet Soap? There are laws prohibiting use of public drinking cups, and of public towels. Because they have been found to be unsanitary.

Can dirty towels be any more dangerous than impure soap? Not a bit. Not as much. Impure soap does not stop on the surface of the skin. It goes right down into and clogs up the pores of the skin. If it isn't washed out it either hampers the action of the pores or is finally absorbed by the skin. Either way is bad enough.

Everyone should be extremely careful in selection of a Toilet Soap. Can't be too discriminating.

Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap is a safe choice, always. This soap is absolutely pure.

It is made only of select materials of the highest quality. Then the combined ingredients are sterilized at 198° Fahrenheit—just as a surgeon's instruments are sterilized to purify them.

There is a world of enjoyment in the use of Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap—and there is the solid satisfaction in knowing that the soft rich lather that feels so good is not only cleansing the skin but actually benefiting it—removing dust, grime and dirt—leaving no impurities of any kind imbedded in the tiny pores.

If you prize cleanliness and appreciate its value to health and complexion beauty you certainly should use Remmo.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL AT MANCHESTER SCHOOL

Manchester, Oct. 31.—The Halloween social given at the school by the graded under the direction of the teachers proved a very interesting event. The guests met at the door by ghosts, who led them into the primary room. A grand march was the opening event and prizes were awarded for the best costume to Miss Susie Windsor and the most comical to Jack Robinson.

Later all unmasked and a brief program was given.
Miss Lora Potefish of Litererry of Literberry gave some readings which proved most entertaining. The ghosts' den, which was the intermediate room, was then opened and the guests found it decorated with witches, bats and skeletons.

There were various side shows and a fortune tellers' booth, all adding much to the merriment of the evening. The prize in the guessing contest was won by Miss

WHY BE AFRAID OF GOOD FOOD?

Eat What You Like Best But Follow It With a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

When the stomach sours or becomes gassy, with heartburn it needs the alkaline effect to offset the acid condition. This you get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Relief is usually very prompt. The regular use of these tablets after meals gives the stomach and small intestine substantial help to digest food and you will then be bold enough to eat baked beans, fried eggs, sausage, buckwheat cakes and many other things you thought would make your stomach miserable. Get a 60 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and you will then eat whatever you like and be fortified against the acid, sour stomach due to indigestion or dyspepsia.—Adv.

This new way to beautiful teeth

Your druggist today has a new way of teeth cleaning. And a ten-day tube is free.

Millions of people now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. You would never go without it if you knew.

Go ask for that free tube. There are few things more important than well-protected teeth.

Remove the film-coat

You brush teeth now, but you leave much of the film. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it. So teeth too often discolor and decay.

Dentists now know that the reason lies in film. That causes most tooth troubles. And, until one ends it, brushing fails to save the teeth.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And pyorrhea wrecks countless lives today.

An alarming situation

Tooth troubles have been constantly increasing. Very few people escape them. So dental science has in late years studied to combat that film.

Now we know how. The methods have been proved by careful clinical tests, made under able authorities. Now millions of people employ them, largely by dental advice. A new era in teeth cleaning is fast spreading the world over.

These new methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. A 10-Day Tube is given to everyone who asks. Now all who will may quickly know that film can be combated.

What you will see

A test of Pepsodent brings quick and unique effects. One sees and feels them clearly. And a book which comes Get this free tube. Its use will be a revelation. To you and yours the results will open a new era in teeth cleaning. Learn now what they mean to you.

with the 10-Day Tube tells the reasons for them.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Each application also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Day by day we fight the film and all its ill effects. You see the results in whiter teeth. You feel them in cleaner teeth. But the great results are such protection as teeth never had before.

You owe yourself a knowledge of these facts. Old ways of brushing have proved sadly inadequate. Nearly everybody at some time suffers trouble caused by film.

Now science knows how to combat film, and in ten days you can know. Never again will you trust the old ways when you know the new.

Teeth will glisten when the film-coat goes

Get this free tube and watch it. No how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

ARRANGE FOR NEW BRANCH OF AGRICULTURE IN INDIA
Chicago—It is pretty convincing to the natives of India when we grow millet, seventeen feet high on the Methodist church forms, will be the native millet never grows more than three feet high on ground adjacent. Dr.
Penson Baker of the committee on Conservation and Advance of the Methodist Centenary, said
he had a new branch of agriculture in connection with the board of foreign missions." Dr. Baker said, Centenary money is launching several agricultural products in foreign lands. In the southwest of Chile at Lel Varjel the Centenary has purchased 37000 acres of land for experimental purpose of teaching the natives how to farm properly. Froyd Crouse, a graduate of the college of agriculture at Ames,
Ia., is in charge of the farm work.

FARM TENANCY IN ILLINOIS INCREASES

Four Per Cent Increase in Farm
Tenantry During Four Year Period, According to Department of Agriculture Figures—Increase Not Uniform Throug-out Country.

Chicago—The increase in farm tenantry which has become an as-sue in Kansas does not appear in Kansas does not appear uniform throughout the central west,
according to reports received here from a number of agricultural authorities. While the majority of the several states heard from report an advance, Wisconsin notes no change, owing to the various states named is thus indicate:

Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska and Ohio show increases. The situation in the various states
named is thus indicated:
Farm tenantry in Oklahoma
has shown a decrease of 7 per cent
during the ten years since 1910, according to figures from each county compiled by H. H. Shutz, federal statistician for the state. In 1910, farm owners made up 45
per cent of the tillers of the soil,
and renters 55 per cent, while new owners represent 52 per cent and renters 48 per cent. Nearly every section of the state showed a decrease in the number of renters, according to Mr. Shutz, who based his report on returns from all farms in the state, numbering approximately 193,000. Mr.
Shutz noted a growing tendency on the part of renters to buy a small tract, from 10 to 20 acres, and rent adjoining land. He said high crop prices have enabled many renters to swing into the owner column.

"The percentage of rented farms has remained about the same and, in a few cases, has increased somewhat in the southern half of Wisconsin, so the economic condition there is not very different from the condition in the corn belt states," Joseph A. Becker, agricultural statistician at Madison, writes.

"However, the large number of new farms being opened in the northern part of the state, practically all of which are operated by owners, has more than kept up the percentage of owned farms. Summing up, there has been some tendency toward an increase in farm tenantry, but the opening up of new farms operated by owners in the northern part of the state has more than offset this in Wisconsin."

Farm tenantry increased four per cent in Illinois in the 10 year period from 1909 to 1919, according to figures compiled by the state department of agriculture at Springfield. Tenantry in 1919 was estimated at 45.5 per cent.

Farm tenantry in Minnesota is steadily increasing because of the advanced prices of farm lands and a hesitancy on the part of many retiring farmers to relinquish title to their lands, according to M. J. Holmberg, state commissioner of agriculture. A material increase in tenantry is reported in the southern counties,
where the cost of land is leav-tively high. In the northern section the increase is not so marked, Mr. Holmberg said, because the land there commands but a comparatively low price and the influx of immigrants is large.

In Nebraska an increase of about four per cent in tenant owned farms from 1910 to 1919 shown in figures supplied by Leo Stuh, secretary of the state department of agriculture.

Springfield, Ill.—Motor license fees will remain at the present price next year, according to Walter W. Miller, head of the state automobile department.

Fees would be lower next year
if it were not for the fact that the road building program which was figured at $18.00 per mile is now costing more than $48,000 per mile is now costing more than $48,000 per mile.

In 1915 the state legislature fixed sufficient motor fees to cover the 20 year bond issue of $60,000,000 for road building operations, basing estimates on a half million cars in the State.

This year the half million mark
has been passed, and a 20 per cent increase is anticipated for next year.

Pupils Have Judges and Clerks and Carry On Election According to Law—Much Information Received by Those Participating.

Could the spirits of some of the good directors of the public schools of fifty years ago have visited the David Prince building yesterday morning they surely would have exclaimed, "Where are we at?" Instead of classes toiling the mark and having a lesson, a stunt in Mitchell's geography or a trial with the multiplication table or possibly a wrestle with the rule of three or a sentence in grammar, they would have found—think of it!—three polling places conducted with all possible gravity and decorum.

The ponderous ballots were duly spread on the tables and in proper order the pupils and teachers appeared at the several polling places, took a ballot with the initials of one of the judges on it, repaired to the booths and made their mark, according to their political or personal preference.

Everything was done with strict order and propriety, and while the voting was going on the pupils in the large auditorium or study hall kept at their work in a proper manner after voting.

The following were the organizations at the several polls, where 325 pupils and eleven teachers voted in an hour and thirty-five minutes.

Election 52 Years Ago
An elderly resident of the city yesterday remarked that the election this year was a little different from that of 52 years ago. Then the old courthouse stood in the southwest part of the square and at several of the windows the voters handed in their ballots. The county board in their wisdom saw fit to set posts a little way from the sides of the building and fasten joists to them so voters would have to pass through a narrow space to deposit their ballots.

Then certain citizens deemed it their duty to crowd into the narrow space and hinder certain voters all they could. Especially did they demand naturalization papers from a large class of citizens, causing much annoyance, jamming and delay.

The late Michael Rapp, father of Deem and Thomas, was a judge at one of the windows and was well acquainted with a large number of the challenged voters and when one was asked for his papers Mr. Rapp would bristle up and say: "I accept his vote; now go have me arrested if you want to."

He voted more men by far than cast their votes at any other window and no one saw fit to have him arrested, either.

Those were stormy days at times, but we have lived through them all right and are now voting in a different manner.

RAINS BENEFIT WHEAT AND CLOVER CROPS

Recent Rains Prove Salvation of Winter Wheat and Clover Crops, According to Agricultural Department Authority.

Springfield, Ill.—Recent rains have proved to be the salvation of winter wheat and clover crops as well as making it possible to use the pastures for several weeks longer, according to S. D. Fessenden of the State Department of agriculture.

Late appearance of the Hessian fly, owing to the dry weather was seriously menacing the winter wheat crop, an donly the timely wet weather saved large losses, he said. The crop is reported generally up over a considerable area. The acreage is smaller this year than usual owing to difficulty in plowing hard ground.

Corn is fully made over the entire state and reports indicate that there is an abundance of harvest help. The husking however has been temporarily delayed by the wet weather.

Rye is practically all seeded and is above ground in many sections.

Apples which are being marketed in large quantities are found to be of excellent quality. An exceptionally large yield of pears has been reported. The harvest is not fully completed.

FRANKLIN RESIDENT IS KILLED BY FALL

Newton Clayton While Suffering From an Attack of Heart Trouble Falls and Sustains Broken Neck—Coroner Rose Held an Inquest.

Newton Clayton, a resident of Franklin, while suffering from an attack of heart trouble accidentally fell from a wagon about 11:15 o'clock Tuesday morning and sustained a dislocation of the neck, causing instant death.

Clayton was employed by W. C. Calhoun. He had been hauling coal and after delivering several loads put a load of fodder on his wagon. He had complained of suffering from heart attacks earlier in the day. It is thought that he was seized with an attack and fell from the wagon while unconscious.

Glen Snow found the team wandering in the street after Clayton had fallen from the wagon. He tied the animals to a tree and then further on found Clayton lying in the road. Dr. W. D. Henderson was called but Clayton was dead on his arrival.

Coroner Rose was notified and went to Franklin Tuesday afternoon and held an inquest at 4 o'clock. The jury was composed of J. L. Seymour, foreman; A. A. Boerup, C. E. Scott, Carl S. Miller, T. S. Tribble and A. F. Ruble, clerk.

The jury heard the testimony of Mrs. Fred Snow, Glen Snow, Justin L. Luttrell and Dr. W. D. Henderson. After hearing the testimony the jury returned a verdict that death resulted from an attack of heart failure which caused Clayton to fall from a load of fodder dislocating his neck.

Clayton had been a resident of Franklin for many years. He was 50 years of age and unmarried.

URGES ELIMINATION OF WILD WEST SHOW

Omaha, Neb.—The Wild West show must be eliminated from the calendar of American sports because of its brutality, Frederick B. Fanger, of Denver, Colo., told the American Humane association at its closing session here today. Mr. Fanger is state officer of the state bureau of child and animal protection of Colorado.

While referring to the exhibitions in question as wild west shows, Mr. Fanger remarked that in every community in which they were permitted they were called by different names, such as Reodeo in California, Frontier Days in Wyoming, Stampede in Texas and so on.

A typical wild west exhibition he said, generally includes: Riding bucking burros, relay race for cowgirls, relay race for cowboys, fancy trick roping, fancy trick riding, cow pony races, Roman standing races, riding bucking bronchos, wild horse race, bull dogging steers, and roping steers.

"Of the number named," he said, "not one of them actually takes place on the range in the business of herding cattle, with the exception of steer roping, or roping of animals in general for the purpose of branding, dehorning, etc."

"The so-called 'sports' which cause fairminded people to turn away in disgust," Mr. Fanger said "might be summed up under the headings of riding bucking bronchos (rough riding), steer roping, bull dogging and wild horse race." The Denver humane officer urged a vigorous campaign of education and condemnatory publicity.

Harmony Lodge No. 3 A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock. WORK. Visiting brethren welcome.

ENROLLMENT AT NORMAL SCHOOLS DECREASES

Springfield, Ill.—Enrollment at the state normal schools at Normal and Charleston has fallen off sharply in the last three years, according to statistics made public today by William H. McLain of the state department of finance. The tabulation of attendance at the Illinois State Normal University at Normal is as follows: In 1915 there were 964 students in attendance; 1916, 1150; 1917, 1335; 1918, 1000; 1919, 732; 1920, 871. At the Eastern Illinois Normal school, at Charleston the attendance for the past 5 years is as follows: 1915, 595; 1916, 684; 1917, 754; 1918, 586; 1919, 485; 1920, 487.

F. G. Blair, state superintendent of public school instruction, states that the reason for this decline is the small pay being received by teachers thruout the state.

The Cost of a Hole in the Ground

COMMENTING upon the rise in the price of gasoline, a man who is unfamiliar with petroleum production writes:

"The Lord, who put the oil in the earth, charges no more for it than he ever did. It comes for nothing out of the ground when you dig a hole."

This is true, if it comes out of the ground without help. The greatly increased cost lies in digging the hole, casing it, caring for the oil when it comes out, and transporting and handling it on its way to the refinery.

Petroleum Age in its September issue says: "The cost of drilling and equipping a well at the present scale of prices for material and labor runs from Five Thousand Dollars for a shallow sand pumper to Seventy-five Thousand Dollars for the deep wells. A general average covering the entire country would run about Twenty Thousand Dollars per well."

One item which is often overlooked is the cost of drilling wells which fail to produce oil. It is estimated that from 20 to 30 percent of all wells put down are dry holes.

Yet, in spite of all discouragements, which included shortage of casing, difficulties of transportation, and the increasing expense of labor, on July 31st, 1920, there were eleven thousand wells drilling or under way east of the Rocky Mountains, with completions averaging about three thousand wells a month. Probably thirty-six thousand wells will be completed during 1920.

The total expense including investment in drilling tools, lease equipment and labor, is roughly estimated at one billion dollars.

Deducting two hundred fifty million dollars (25 percent) for salvage on equipment susceptible of further use, the net investment in new production for the year will be seven hundred fifty million dollars.

It is apparent that oil does not come "for nothing out of the ground."

Oil is usually discovered in spots remote from rail centers. The cost of pumping and transporting it to the refinery is a heavy charge. At the refinery charges begin to pile up, for refining oil is a true manufacturing process involving application of chemistry, the use of specialized machinery, and human labor.

All of these factors add to the cost of a product which Nature has given us.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been steadfastly applying the trained power of its organization to increasing the yield of gasoline from crude, and in achieving economies by large scale operations in refining and distributing its products.

RAINS BENEFIT WHEAT AND CLOVER CROPS

Recent Rains Prove Salvation of Winter Wheat and Clover Crops, According to Agricultural Department Authority.

Springfield, Ill.—Recent rains have proved to be the salvation of winter wheat and clover crops as well as making it possible to use the pastures for several weeks longer, according to S. D. Fessenden of the State Department of agriculture.

Late appearance of the Hessian fly, owing to the dry weather was seriously menacing the winter wheat crop, an donly the timely wet weather saved large losses, he said. The crop is reported generally up over a considerable area. The acreage is smaller this year than usual owing to difficulty in plowing hard ground.

Corn is fully made over the entire state and reports indicate that there is an abundance of harvest help. The husking however has been temporarily delayed by the wet weather.

Rye is practically all seeded and is above ground in many sections.

Apples which are being marketed in large quantities are found to be of excellent quality. An exceptionally large yield of pears has been reported. The harvest is not fully completed.

FRANKLIN RESIDENT IS KILLED BY FALL

Newton Clayton While Suffering From an Attack of Heart Trouble Falls and Sustains Broken Neck—Coroner Rose Held an Inquest.

Newton Clayton, a resident of Franklin, while suffering from an attack of heart trouble accidentally fell from a wagon about 11:15 o'clock Tuesday morning and sustained a dislocation of the neck, causing instant death.

Clayton was employed by W. C. Calhoun. He had been hauling coal and after delivering several loads put a load of fodder on his wagon. He had complained of suffering from heart attacks earlier in the day. It is thought that he was seized with an attack and fell from the wagon while unconscious.

Glen Snow found the team wandering in the street after Clayton had fallen from the wagon. He tied the animals to a tree and then further on found Clayton lying in the road. Dr. W. D. Henderson was called but Clayton was dead on his arrival.

Coroner Rose was notified and went to Franklin Tuesday afternoon and held an inquest at 4 o'clock. The jury was composed of J. L. Seymour, foreman; A. A. Beerup, C. E. Scott, Carl S. Miller, T. S. Tribble and A. F. Rubie, clerk.

The jury heard the testimony of Mrs. Fred Snow, Glen Snow, Justin L. Luttrell and Dr. W. D. Henderson. After hearing the testimony the jury returned a verdict that death resulted from an attack of heart failure which caused Clayton to fall from a load of fodder dislocating his neck.

Clayton had been a resident of Franklin for many years. He was 50 years of age and unmarried.

URGES ELIMINATION OF WILD WEST SHOW

Omaha, Neb.—The Wild West show must be eliminated from the calendar of American sports because of its brutality, Frederick B. Fanger, of Denver, Colo., told the American Humane association at its closing session here today. Mr. Fanger is state officer of the state bureau of child and animal protection of Colorado.

While referring to the exhibitions in question as wild west shows, Mr. Fanger remarked that in every community in which they were permitted they were called by different names, such as Reodeo in California, Frontier Days in Wyoming, Stampede in Texas and so on.

A typical wild west exhibition he said, generally includes: Riding bucking burros, relay race for cowgirls, relay race for cowboys, fancy trick roping, fancy trick riding, cow pony races, Roman standing races, riding (bucking bronchos, wild horse race, bull dogging steers, and roping steers. "Of the number named," he said, "not one of them actually takes place on the range in the business of herding cattle, with the exception of steer roping, or roping of animals in general for the purpose of branding, dehorning, etc.

"The so-called 'sports' which cause fair-minded people to turn away in disgust," Mr. Fanger said "might be summed up under the headings of riding bucking bronchos (rough riding), steer roping, bull dogging and wild horse race." The Denver humane officer urged a vigorous campaign of education and condemnatory publicity.

Harmony Lodge No. 3 A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

W. O. R. K. Visiting brethren welcome.

ENROLLMENT AT NORMAL SCHOOLS DECREASES

Springfield, Ill.—Enrollment at the state normal schools at Normal and Charleston has fallen off sharply in the last three years, according to statistics made public today by William H. McLain of the state department of finance. Tabulation of attendance at the Illinois State Normal University at Normal is as follows: In 1915 there were 964 students in attendance; 1916, 1150; 1917, 1335; 1918, 1000; 1919, 732; 1920, 871. At the Eastern Illinois Normal school, at Charleston the attendance for the past 5 years is as follows: 1915, 595; 1916, 684; 1917, 754; 1918, 586; 1919, 485; 1920, 487.

F. G. Blair, state superintendent of public school instruction, states that the reason for this decline is the small pay being received by teachers thruout the state.

The Cost of a Hole in the Ground

COMMENTING upon the rise in the price of gasoline, a man who is unfamiliar with petroleum production writes:

"The Lord, who put the oil in the earth, charges no more for it than he ever did. It comes for nothing out of the ground when you dig a hole."

This is true, if it comes out of the ground without help. The greatly increased cost lies in digging the hole, casing it, caring for the oil when it comes out, and transporting and handling it on its way to the refinery.

Petroleum Age in its September issue says: "The cost of drilling and equipping a well at the present scale of prices for material and labor runs from Five Thousand Dollars for a shallow sand pumper to Seventy-five Thousand Dollars for the deep wells. A general average covering the entire country would run about Twenty Thousand Dollars per well."

One item which is often overlooked is the cost of drilling wells which fail to produce oil. It is estimated that from 20 to 30 percent of all wells put down are dry holes.

Yet, in spite of all discouragements, which included shortage of casing, difficulties of transportation, and the increasing expense of labor, on July 31st, 1920, there were eleven thousand wells drilling or under way east of the Rocky Mountains, with completions averaging about three thousand wells a month. Probably thirty-six thousand wells will be completed during 1920.

The total expense including investment in drilling tools, lease equipment and labor, is roughly estimated at one billion dollars.

Deducting two hundred fifty million dollars (25 percent) for salvage on equipment susceptible of further use, the net investment in new production for the year will be seven hundred fifty million dollars.

It is apparent that oil does not come "for nothing out of the ground."

Oil is usually discovered in spots remote from rail centers. The cost of pumping and transporting it to the refinery is a heavy charge. At the refinery charges begin to pile up, for refining oil is a true manufacturing process involving application of chemistry, the use of specialized machinery, and human labor.

All of these factors add to the cost of a product which Nature has given us.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been steadfastly applying the trained power of its organization to increasing the yield of gasoline from crude, and in achieving economies by large scale operations in refining and distributing its products.
